

We surveyed 750 commercial contractors about Business Impact agree order changes have the biggest impact on a company's ability to get a job completed on time, and within budget.

37%

Which two factors have the most negative impact on business growth?

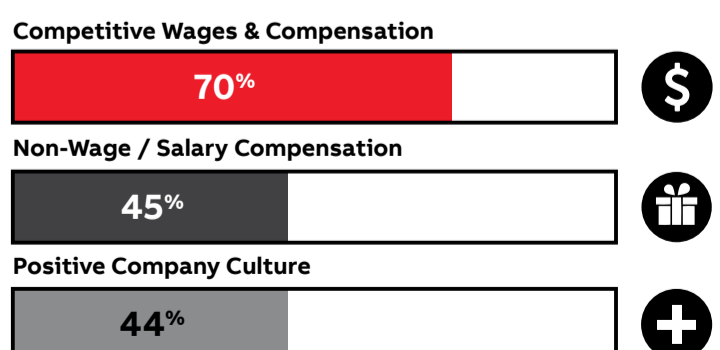

41%

find it difficult to secure qualified and skilled electricians / installers and qualified managers for leadership positions

70%

feel competitive wages and compensation have the greatest impact on employee retention

EC&M launched an anonymous survey investigating current issues facing the electrical contractors through a survey. 745 owners, principals etc. responded sharing their experiences on how their teams "keep up with code changes".

See Full Report