

We surveyed 750 commercial contractors about Business Technology

77%

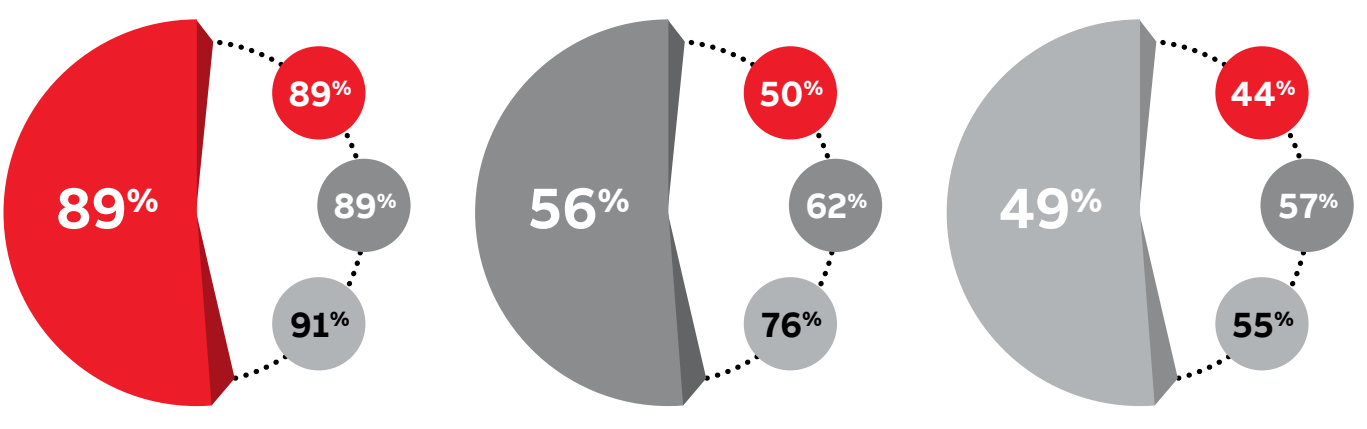

primarily access product specifications on their mobile devices.

Which business management tools are your company leveraging to keep operations and processes running smoothly?

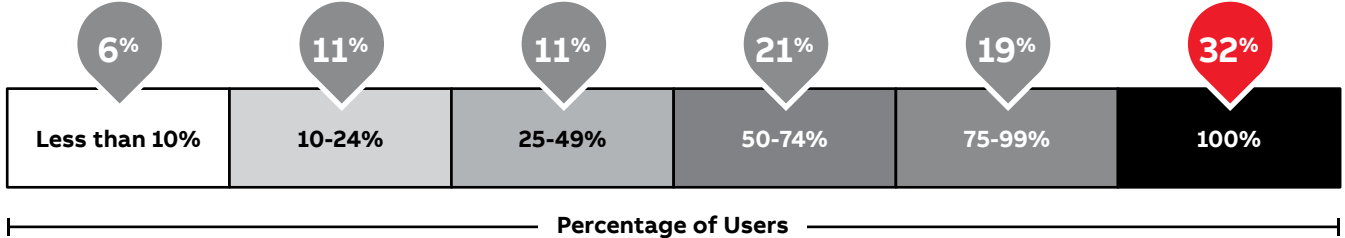

67% routinely use mobile devices to complete their job.

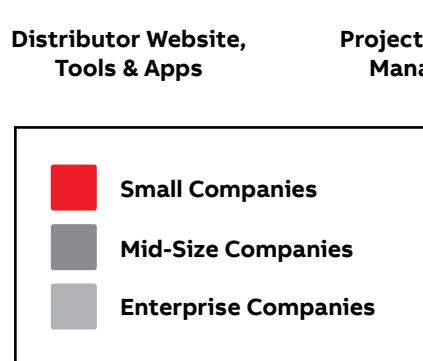

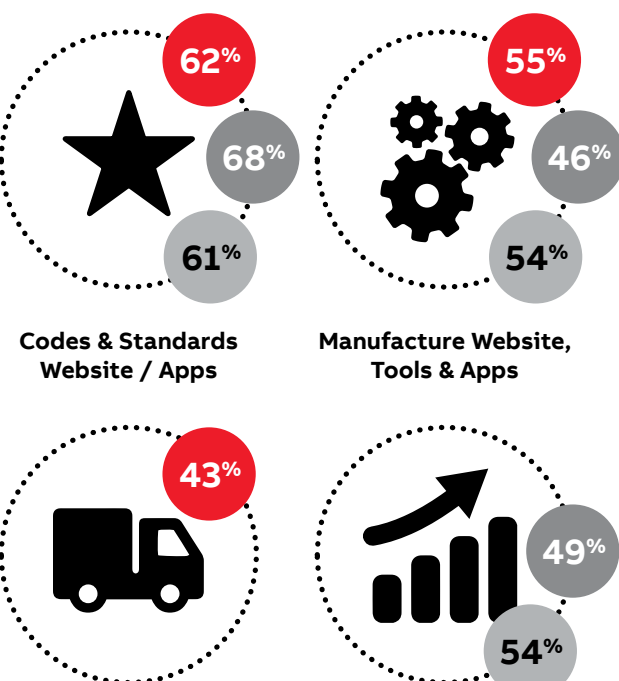

Approximately what percentage of your company's field employees use mobile devices on the job?

report that 100% of their employees use mobile devices.

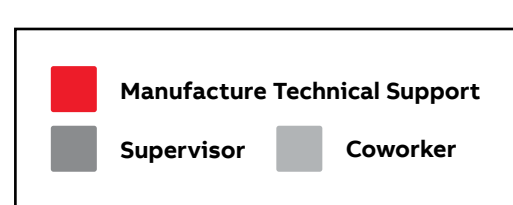

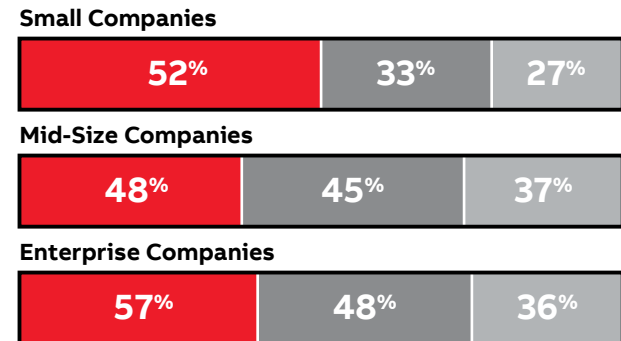

63% of field employees use codes & standards websites / apps regularly.

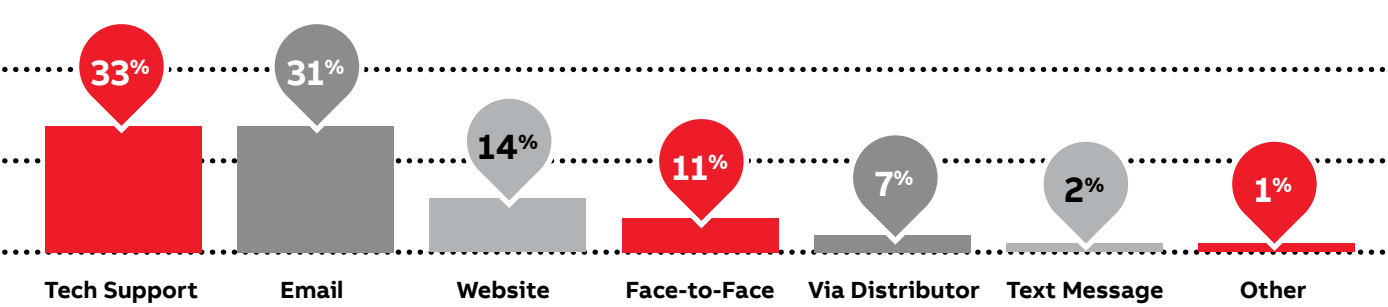

> 20% indicate the need for an app they have not seen yet, or that hasn't yet been developed.

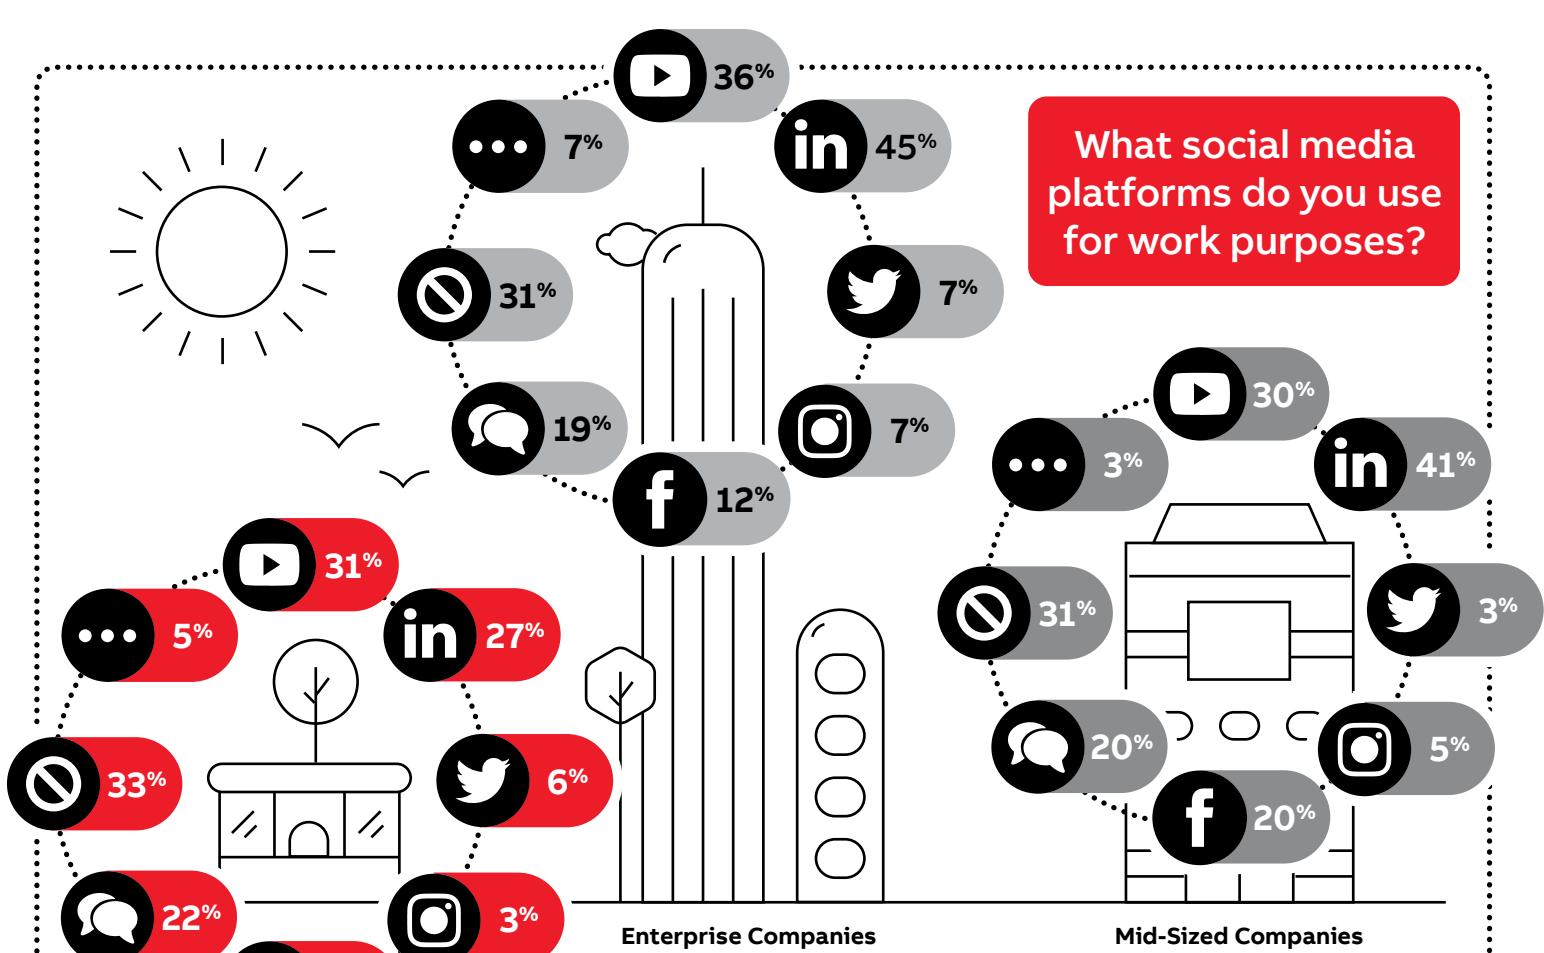

52% rely on manufacture technical support when problems with dot codes and / or standard interpretation are encountered.

What is your preferred method of contact with manufacturers?

What social media platforms do you use for work purposes?

EC&M launched an anonymous survey investigating current issues facing the electrical contractors through a survey. 745 owners, principals etc. responded sharing their experiences on how their teams "keep up with code changes".